VET Student Loans

Courses eligible: CUA51020 Diploma of Screen and Media, CUA60620 Advanced Diploma of Screen and Media
This is a Commonwealth Government program allowing students access to loans for eligible courses.
Each course will have a cap on the maximum amount a student may borrow.
Students who access this program will have to repay their loan once they reach the defined income level.
VET Student Loans are subject to a 20% loan fee on top of their course fee loan.
Visit the website for more information <https://www.studyassist.gov.au/vet-student-loans>

Upfront Payment

Full fee-paying students (not receiving government assistance) are eligible to receive a $250 discount if paying their course fee upfront.

Overdue Fees

Students with overdue fees will not be eligible to continue attending the college, sit for assessments or be marked competent until fees are resolved. The college is happy to work with students in extenuating circumstances to come to alternate payment plan agreements. Please contact the college immediately if you are unable to make repayments in accordance with the above payment plans or if you are in financial hardship.

International Education Agents

International education agents should contact the college directly to request a copy of the Education Agent Agreement form, which details the terms of contract and commission entitlements.

Please note:

- Fees are subject to change and course deposits are non-refundable.
- Where an Education Agent enrolls a student for a course at ACMUSE, additional costs may be incurred. These are beyond our control.
- Fortnightly payment is due on the Monday of each fortnight.
- Monthly payments are due on the 25th of each month.
- Termly payments are due on the first day of each term.
- Students who fail to meet their payment obligations will not be eligible to continue to attend classes and will not be able to receive their qualification.
- We advise that you inform the college immediately if you are unable to meet the payment requirements as outlined above.
